

C-SPAN's STUDENTCAM 2009

C-SPAN StudentCam is a documentary competition encouraging students to think seriously about issues that affect our communities and our nation.

This year's topic? A message to the new President: What is the most urgent issue for the new president to address after taking office, and why?

Students are to create a short (between 5 - 8 minutes) video that explores an issue of national significance, reflects more than one point of view, and includes C-SPAN video.

StudentCam is open to all middle school students (grades 6-8) and high school students (grades 9-12) as individuals entrants, or teams of students. Teams are limited to 3 students.

* Student documentary competition

* $50,000 in cash prizes

* Open to middle and high school students (grades 6 - 12)
